

YOU ASKED FOR IT

Opening Questions:

1. What stands out in these passages?
2. What is difficult for you to understand or accept from these passages?
3. What do these passages teach us about God, about people?
4. What examples are there to follow, commands to obey, or promises to claim from these passages?

Talk It Over --6

In response to the current state of confusion, divisiveness, and bitterness, Pastor Barry Park of University Christian Church in Manhattan, Kansas brings a series of messages on issues that people are asking about called,

You Asked for It.

Message Questions:

How do you flee temptations? How does the 'armor of God' fit into this struggle? Ephesians 6:10-11

Greed? Philippians 4:12-13

Why doesn't the church talk about gluttony?

How do we determine that it is OK to have female ministers?

What is the role of the saints? Do we pray to them or is it man-made? 1 Timothy 2:5

How do I determine if I am called to singlehood?

Why do I still use Sunday as our Sabbath?

Why is there not a cross displayed in our building?

Is the church in debt?

How do I help someone who struggles with suicide?

What does being equally yoked look like?

Acceptance of sin in our culture vs. the Bible?

Why does our church not have an American or Christian flag?

How do we deal with science vs. a Biblical view of things (i.e. evolution)?

Why don't we dissect Bible passages for a few weeks instead of doing a sermon series?

Divorce and remarriage--how can we be forgiven? Should we stay in an abusive/cheating marriage?

Why don't we spend more time on Easter?

Why did Grandma say if you are not submitting to your parents/employers/teachers/husband/government then you are not submitting to God?

Does God change? Why does He seem so different from OT to NT?

How do we get to heaven?

Need the message to find answers? Follow the link <https://youtu.be/ISKRIImGYsqc>