Start talking. Find a conversation starter for your group.

- If you could describe your life as a single person in three words, what three words would you choose?

Start thinking. Ask a question to get your group thinking.

- Which part of this message was most impactful for you and why?
- Did this message change the way you think about soulmates? If so, how?
- Think about your relationships. Which ones have drawn you toward your God-given purpose? Which ones have pushed you further away? What can you learn from those experiences?

Start sharing. Choose a question to create openness.

- Dating for your soulmate requires intentionality, clarity, strategy, and timeliness. If you're single or dating, which of those four things do you need more of right now? How can you add them into your life?
- If you're married, how can you bring more of those four things into your relationship with your spouse?

Start praying. Be bold and pray with power.

Father, thank You for the good relationships You've blessed us with in our lives. As we go forward and form new relationships and strengthen existing relationships, help us to point one another to You, growing closer together to the purpose You've given each of us. In Jesus' name, amen.

Start doing. Commit to a step and live it out this week.
