

SERIES: DAVID

Episode 1: "The Reluctant Hero"

We place our hope in what, or who, we depend on the most. But what do we do when we're left disappointed? One of history's most famous kings offers us a way forward, even when the odds are stacked against us.

QUESTIONS

- 01  Talk about a time when you faced a seemingly insurmountable obstacle. What did you do?
- 02  Has success ever given you a false sense of security or control? What happened?
- 03  In what, or who, do you typically place your hope?
- 04  What does "trusting God" mean to you? What do you feel you would lose and/or gain by choosing to trust him with your fears?
- 05  During the talk, Andy said, "Those whose hope is in the Lord see clearly, act confidently, and walk humbly." Which of those three do you find most challenging? Which benefits you the most?

NOTES

BOTTOM LINE

See clearly. Act confidently. Walk humbly.
